No Limits on Equality

STILL TODAY IN 2017

We are fighting to tear down the barriers that are preventing gender equality and creating inequalities among women and peoples of all nations.

We are feminists promoting a fairer world for every woman on the planet and unity among diversity.

With our allies, we will carry on the fight against all forms of systemic discrimination that are preventing us from achieving real gender equality.

SOLIDARITY FOREVER!

EQUALITY KNOWS NO BOUNDS

PAVING THE ROAD

For women's economic empowerment
For gender parity in decision-making positions
For true gender equality in housework

ALWAYS ALERT IN THE STRUGGLE

For a society free of any kind of violence against women
For a world without everyday sexism
For the abolishment of systemic discrimination in the workplace

BUILDING BRIDGES

Between various kinds of feminism
Between men and women
Between women of all backgrounds

LONG LIVE

On March 8th, 2017, let us stand as one and commit to shouting daily loudly and clearly without fear or shame that we are proud to be feminists.

We hope that you will participate in large numbers in your local March 8 activities. For more details, contact your regional central council.

WHY MARCH 8th?

International Women’s Day, March 8th,
is the best time to unite in our struggles,
to organize activities, to let our voices and demands be heard. For over 40 years, in Québec, we’ve been using this date to bring light to women’s contributions to the development of a fairer society rooted in solidarity and equality.
